

Gas Terminal Project Consultation Activities Plan: August to November 2021

Below outlines the proposed consultation activities for the Viva Energy Gas Terminal Project as of July 2021. This will be used as a guide and will evolve as the Environment Effects Statement develops. Final activities and outputs will be published at <https://www.vivaenergy.com.au/energy-hub/gas-terminal-project/community-consultation-and-feedback>

Channel	Description / timing	Objective	Target Audience
August 2021
Community Information Session	Community Information Session Thursday 12th August 12:00 Corio Library Cox Rd (Cnr Moa St), Norlane Topic: Project update and amenity studies	To engage with the public and increase community understanding about the Gas Terminal Project and the EES and environmental approvals process. To engage with the public and stakeholders on their concerns about the potential impacts of the Project To provide an opportunity for the public to ask representatives of the Project Team about the Project and the EES and environmental approval process Technical specialists will be available to provide an overview of studies conducted and key findings, and answer questions To outline the next steps in the EES process.	Community To be advertised on Viva Energy website and Facebook page, via Refinery Update (local newsletter) mail drop and in E-news updates, and in the Geelong Independent newspaper.
Study Summaries	Outline of study available on website: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Aboriginal and historic cultural heritage Groundwater and surface water Air Quality 	To provide an overview of technical studies conducted and outline key findings from the studies.	All stakeholders
Refinery News	Local Refinery Newsletter to include an update on the Gas Terminal Project and EES process and advertise Community Information Session	Provide Project update	Community, Neighbours, Business and industry, Employees
Fact Sheets	Provide detailed information on key areas of the Project	Provide detail around focus areas.	All stakeholders

Channel	Description / timing	Objective	Target Audience
Video	Outline key messages and outputs from EES technical studies.	Provide short video content for Facebook	Community, Neighbours
Facebook	Continue to grow following and post information through this channel	Raise awareness	Community
Meetings	Discussions with key stakeholders	To engage and have discussions with stakeholders on the Project	Government, Regulators, Community, Recreational users of Corio Bay, Business and industry, Community and environmental groups, Traditional Owners and Indigenous groups
E-news Update	Update to mailing list, to highlight milestones and key outcomes and advertise Community Information Session	Provide Project update	Community, Government, Neighbours Community and environmental interest groups, Recreational users of Corio Bay, Media
Employee Information Sessions	Provide updates to Geelong Refinery personnel	Engage with employees	Employees
September 2021
Community Information Stand	Shopping Centre Community Information Booth Monday 16 th September, 4:30 - 6:00pm Corio Village Shopping Centre Bacchus Marsh Road & Purnell Road, Corio,	To engage with the public and increase community understanding about the Gas Terminal Project and the EES and environmental approvals process To engage with the public on their concerns about the potential impacts of the Project To provide an opportunity for the public to ask representatives of the Project Team about the Project and the EES and environmental processes. To outline the EES process and upcoming opportunities for public input and feedback into the EES.	Community To be advertised on Viva Energy website and Facebook page, via Refinery Update (local newsletter) mail drop and in E-news updates, and in the Geelong Independent newspaper
Fact Sheets	Provide detailed information on key areas of the Project	Provide detail around focus areas	All stakeholders
Video	Outline key messages and outputs from EES technical studies	Provide short video content for Facebook	Community, Neighbours
Facebook	Continue to grow following and post information through this channel	Increase awareness	Community

Channel	Description / timing	Objective	Target Audience
Meetings	Discussions with key stakeholders	To engage and have discussion with stakeholders on the Project	Government, Regulators, Community, Recreational users of Corio Bay, Business and industry, Traditional Owners and Indigenous groups
Study Summaries	Outline of study available on website: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Land use and planning Landscape and visual Noise Traffic and transport 	To provide an overview of technical studies conducted and outline key findings from the studies.	All stakeholders
E-news Update	Update to mailing list, to highlight milestones and key outcomes and advertise Community Information Session	Provide Project update	Community, Government, Neighbours Community and environmental interest groups, Recreational users of Corio Bay, Media
October 2021
Community Information Session	Community Information Session Monday 11th October, Time TBC Geelong Library & Heritage Centre 51 Malop St, Geelong Topics: Social and business and environmental studies	To engage with the public and increase community understanding about the Gas Terminal Project and the EES and environmental approvals process To engage with the public and stakeholders on their concerns about the potential impacts of the Project To provide an opportunity for the public to ask representatives of the Project Team about the Project and the EES and environmental approval process. Technical specialists will be available to provide an overview of studies conducted and key findings, and answer questions To outline the next steps in the EES process.	Community To be advertised on Viva Energy website and Facebook page, via Refinery Update (local newsletter) mail drop and in E-news updates, and in the Geelong Independent newspaper
Fact Sheets	Provide detailed information on key areas of the Project	Provide detail around focus areas	All stakeholders
Video	Outline key messages and outputs from EES technical studies	Provide short video content for Facebook	Community, Neighbours
Facebook	Continue to grow following and post information through this channel	Increase awareness	Community

Channel	Description / timing	Objective	Target Audience
Meetings	Discussions with key stakeholders	To engage and have discussions with stakeholders on the Project	Government, Regulators, Community, Recreational users of Corio Bay, Business and industry, Community and environmental groups, Traditional Owners and Indigenous groups
Study Summaries	Outline of study available on website: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Social and business • Contamination and acid sulfate soils • Greenhouse gases • Safety 	To provide an overview of technical studies conducted and outline key findings from the studies.	All stakeholders
E-news Update	Update to mailing list, to highlight milestones and key outcomes and advertise Community Information Session	Provide Project update	Community, Government, Neighbours, Community and environmental interest groups, Recreational users of Corio Bay, Media
November 2021
Community Information Stand	Shopping Centre Community Information Booth Westfield Geelong 95 Malop St, Geelong Thursday 15 November, 12:00 – 1.30 pm	To engage with the public and increase understanding about the Gas Terminal Project and the EES and environmental approvals process. To engage with the public on their concerns about potential impacts of the Project. To provide an opportunity for the public to ask representatives of the Project Team about the Project and the EES and environmental approvals processes. To outline the EES process and upcoming opportunities for public input and feedback on the EES.	Community To be advertised on Viva Energy website and Facebook page, via Refinery Update (local newsletter) mail drop and in E-news updates, and in the Geelong Independent newspaper

Channel	Description / timing	Objective	Target Audience
Community Information Session	Community Information Session Date TBC Venue TBC Topic: Project update and marine environment	To engage with public and increase community understanding about the Gas Terminal Project and the EES and environmental approvals process To engage with the public and stakeholders on their concerns about the potential impacts of the Project. To provide an opportunity for the public to ask representatives of the Project Team about the Project and the EES and environmental approval processes. A technical specialist will be available to present an overview of marine environmental studies conducted and key findings, and answer questions. To outline the next steps in the EES process.	Community To be advertised on Viva Energy website and Facebook page, via Refinery Update (local newsletter) mail drop and in E-news updates, and in the Geelong Independent newspaper
Fact Sheets	Provide detailed information on key areas of the Project	Provide detail around focus areas	All stakeholders
Video	Outline key messages and outputs from EES technical studies	Provide short video content for Facebook	Community, Neighbours
Facebook	Continue to grow following and post information through this channel	Increase awareness	Community
Meetings	Discussions with key stakeholders	To engage and have discussions with stakeholders on the Project	Government, Regulators, Community, Recreational users of Corio Bay, Business and industry, Community and environmental groups, Traditional Owners and Indigenous groups
E-news Update	Update to mailing list, to highlight milestones and key outcomes and advertise Community Information Session	Provide Project update	Community, Government, Neighbours Community and environmental interest groups, Recreational users of Corio Bay, Media
Refinery News	Local Refinery Newsletter to include an update on the Gas Terminal Project and EES process and advertise Community Information Session	Provide Project and EES process update	Community, Neighbours, Business and industry, Employees
Study Summaries	Outline of study available on website: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Land and freshwater environment • Localised dredging and spoil disposal • Marine environment 	To provide an overview of technical studies conducted and outline key findings from the studies.	All stakeholders

Channel	Description / timing	Objective	Target Audience
Employee Information Sessions	Provide updates to Geelong Refinery personnel	Engage with employees	Employees