2023 - 24 Gender Equality Reporting

Submitted By:

John Duff & Co. Proprietary Limited 99004914890

John Duff & Co (Transport) Pty Ltd 31095334928

Public Reports

Public report documents contains data which will be published in full by WGEA on the Data Explorer. They should, with public report documents, be taken to your CEO or equivalent for review, approval and sign off and must be shared in accordance with the Notification and Access requirements under the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012.

The following three documents make up your Public Report:

- Questionnaire – Public Report
- Workplace Profile – Public Report
- Workforce Statistics – Public Report

Public reports are used for:

- Review, approval and sign-off of the submission by your CEO or equivalent
- Complying with the Notification and Access requirements outlined below
- Keeping an internal record of what was submitted to WGEA for a particular year

Review, approval and sign-off:

The following documents must be reviewed by the CEO or equivalent of each organisation covered in this submission. More information found here.

- Questionnaire – Confidential Report
- Questionnaire – Public Report
- Workplace Profile - Confidential Report
- Workplace Profile – Public Report
- Workforce Statistics – Public Report

Notification and Access requirements

To comply, an employer must do the following as soon as reasonably practicable:

- Inform its employees and members or shareholders that it has lodged its report with the Agency and advise how the public data may be accessed
- Provide access to the public data to employees and members or shareholders
- Inform employee organisations with members in its workplace that the report has been lodged

More information found here.

#Workplace Overview

Workplace Overview - Policies & Strategies

*1.1 Do you have formal policies and/or formal strategies in place that support gender equality in the workplace?

This question asks whether your organisation has 'policies' and/or 'strategies' in place that support gender equality in the workplace and what the policies and/or strategies include. These areas are considered key to achieving gender diversity in the composition of your workforce. If you do not have a policy and/or strategy in place, you will have the opportunity to indicate why.

No

Other

Provide details: As a small business, we leverage the formal guidelines, processes and policies from our parent company Liberty Oil to inform our ways of working, decision making and our approach to gender equality.

*1.2 Does your organisation have any targets to address gender equality in your workplace?

A target is an achievable, time-framed goal that an organisation can set to focus its efforts. A gender balance target is a goal for a specific group of people.

No

Workplace Overview - Governing Bodies

1.4 Identify your organisation/s' governing body or bodies

Governing bodies are the group of people who formulate policy and direct the affairs of an institution in partnership with the managers. The core role of a governing body is the governance of an organisation. Governing bodies:

- include voluntary boards of not-for-profit organisations

Date Created: 27-06-2024

- are not a diversity council or committee
- are not a global diversity and inclusion team.

Some organisations have common types of governing bodies. For:

- private or publicly listed companies – the governing body is one or more directors or a board of directors
- trusts – the governing body is the trustee
- partnerships – the governing body will be all or some partners (if they are elected)
- religious structures – the governing body is a canonical advisor, bishop or archbishop
- any other structure – the governing body is the management committee.

If you share a governing body with your parent organisation, then your governing body is the same as your parent's

You are required to provide details of each organisation's governing body. A governing body is defined as the one that has primary responsibility for the organisation's governance. As such, you must only report one governing body for each organisation covered in this report.

Please note:

- You must tick the organisation/s this governing body relates to.
- If there are multiple organisations covered in this report you must tick all that relate to this particular governing body.
- If this governing body does not cover all organisations, you should add another governing body after saving this one.
- If you have already ticked an organisation in another governing body in this report, you must not tick it again below.

Organisation: John Duff & Co. Proprietary Limited

*A. To your knowledge, is this governing body also reported in a different submission group for this year's Gender Equality Reporting?

Yes

*B. What is the name of your governing body?

Viva Energy Australia Group Pty Ltd

*C. What type of governing body does this organisation have?

The type of governing body should be the one that has primary responsibility for the governance of each organisation ticked above.

Board of Directors

Date Created: 27-06-2024

*D. How many members are in the governing body and who holds the predominant Chair position?

A Chair is the person who leads and chairs meetings of the governing body. In the situation of rotating Chair position for the meetings, the predominant gender of the people acting as Chairs for the meeting during the reporting period should be used.

X' is a voluntary option to cover members who do not identify as either male or female as defined in the reporting guide.

|                               | Female (F) | Male (M) | X |
|-------------------------------|------------|----------|---|
| Chair                         | 0          | 1        | 0 |

*E. Do you have formal policies and/or formal strategies in place to support and achieve gender equality in this organisation's governing body?

Yes

Selected value: Strategy

E.1 Do the formal policies and/or formal strategies include any of following?

Succession planning for the governing body; Gender and other aspects of diversity

F. Does this organisation's governing body have limits on the terms of its Chair and/or Members?

No

Enter maximum length of term in years. If the term limit does not relate to a full year, record the part year as a decimal amount.

For the Chair: NA

For the Members: NA

*G. Has a target been set on the representation of women on this governing body?

A target is an achievable, time-framed goal that an organisation can set to focus its efforts. A gender balance target is a goal for a specific group of people, in this case the governing body or board. Targets are different from quotas in that they are set by an organisation to suit their own results and timeframes. Quotas are set by an external body with the authority to impose them.

Yes

G.1 Percentage (%) of target: 40

G.2 Year of target to be reached: 2030-12-31

#Action on gender equality

Action on Gender Equality - Pay Equity and Gender Pay Gap

Gender Pay Equity is when women and men receive equal pay for work of the same or similar value, however, it is not just about ensuring women and men performing the same role are paid the same but also about ensuring women and men performing different work of equal and comparable value are paid equitably. This is a legal requirement in Australia.

The gender pay gap is not to be confused with gender pay equity. The gender pay gap is the difference in average or median earnings between women and men and is usually a consequence of disadvantages employees face in the workplace. Gender pay gaps are also not a direct comparison of like roles.

Gender pay gaps are a useful way to monitor the different earning capacities of women and men across organisations, industries, and the workforce as a whole..

Employers need to be actively working to understand and address their pay equity and gender pay gaps. The first step in improving your organisation's pay equality and gender pay gap is to conduct your own pay gap analysis and understand what's driving any differentials

*2.1 Do you have formal policies and/or formal strategies on equal remuneration (pay equity and the gender pay gap) between women and men?

This question focuses on the policies and/or strategies your organisation has in place related to equal remuneration (pay equity and the gender pay gap) between women and men. If you do not have policies and/or strategies in place, you will have the opportunity to indicate why. The policies or strategies may be stand alone and/or contained within another strategy/policy.

No

Other

Date Created: 27-06-2024

Other: John Duff & Co are integrated into Liberty Oil Australia and remuneration is managed through their processes. Liberty Oil have a formal strategy on equal remuneration which has been reported in their submission.

*2.2 Have you analysed your payroll to determine if there are any remuneration gaps between women and men (e.g. conducted a gender pay gap analysis)?

This question focuses on the actions your organisation has taken in relation to gender remuneration. Specifically, it asks if and when you have conducted a remuneration gap analysis and if so, whether you took any actions as a result. If you have not taken any action, you will have the opportunity to indicate why.

Yes

*2.2a What type of gender remuneration gap analysis has been undertaken?

A like-for-like gap analysis which compares the same or similar roles of equal or comparable value

*2.2b When was the most recent gender remuneration gap analysis undertaken?

Within the last 12 months

*2.2c Did you take any actions as a result of your gender remuneration gap analysis?

Yes

Reviewed remuneration decision-making processes; Analysed commencement salaries by gender to ensure there are no pay gaps; Analysed performance pay to ensure there is no gender bias (including unconscious bias); Analysed performance ratings to ensure there is no gender bias (including unconscious bias); Reported pay equity metrics (including gender pay gaps) to the governing body; Reported pay equity metrics (including gender pay gaps) to the executive; Corrected instances of unequal pay'

You may also provide more detail below on the gender remuneration gap analysis that was undertaken.

Our approach to addressing the gender remuneration gap involves several key actions. Firstly, for roles outside of our Enterprise Agreement or Awards, we collaborate closely with and leverage the skills and knowledge of the Viva Energy team to ensure that job sizing is accurate and equitable across similar roles in terms of skills and accountabilities. This collaboration extends to leveraging market data and conducting internal remuneration analysis for salaried employees.

During our annual remuneration review process, we conduct thorough analysis both before and after adjustments to uncover any pay equity gaps between employees in similar roles, regardless of gender. Should any gaps be identified, we implement a plan to rectify these disparities within a 12-month period.

It's worth noting that a significant portion of our workforce is comprised of male-dominated roles, particularly heavy vehicle drivers, which account for two-thirds of our total workforce. These roles are governed by an Enterprise Agreement, and the representation of females in this category is less than 1%. For employees covered under an Enterprise Bargaining Agreement (EBA), remuneration is determined solely based on job title and level, without consideration of gender. Consequently, specific pay review analysis for employees under the EBA and Award are deemed unnecessary.

To ensure that unconscious bias does not influence decision-making regarding remuneration, role development/promotions and other crucial aspects of our business, in 2024 we will be implementing unconscious bias training for leaders across the organisation. By training our leaders to recognise and address unconscious biases we're aiming to create a fair workplace where everyone, irrespective of gender, has equal opportunities for growth and fair treatment. This effort fosters a culture of fairness and respect, promoting gender pay equity across our organisation.

Action on Gender Equality - Employee Consultation

*2.4 Have you consulted with employees on issues concerning gender equality in your workplace during the reporting period?

Employee consultation is a formalised way to collect information about your employees' views on the workplace, what is working well and what could be improved. This question asks if you have consulted your employees about gender equality issues in the workplace during the reporting period.

Examples of issues can include:

- parental leave entitlements and related processes, like keep-in-touch and return-to-work programs
- flexible working arrangements
- gender pay equity
- representation of women in management
- recruitment of women in non-traditional areas
- sexual harassment or discrimination.

Yes

Date Created: 27-06-2024

Provide further details on the employee consultation process.

*2.4a How did you consult employees?

Employee experience survey

*2.4b Who did you consult?

ALL staff

*2.5 Do you have formal policies and/or formal strategies in place to ensure employees are consulted and have input on issues concerning gender equality in the workplace?

No

Other

Other: Although no formal policy, we do discuss gender equality broadly especially in relation to removing barriers for women's full participation in our industry (fuel distribution) and family and caring responsibilities for employees.

*2.6 Did your organisation/s share last year's public report/s with employees and shareholders?

It is a requirement within the WGE Act for the relevant employer to:

- make public reports accessible to employees and shareholders
- inform employee organisations about the opportunity to comment
- inform employee organisations of lodgement of public report.

Only select 'Not applicable' if your organisation/s did not submit a report in the previous reporting period.

Yes

*2.7 Have you shared previous Executive Summary and Industry Benchmark report with the governing body?

It is a requirement within the WGE Act for the CEO to share your Executive Summary and Industry Benchmark report.

Only select 'Not applicable' if you did not receive an Executive Summary and Industry Benchmark from the Agency last year.

Yes

#Flexible Work

Flexible Work - Support for flexible working arrangements

3.1 Do you have a formal policy and/or formal strategy on flexible working arrangements?

This section focuses on the flexible work arrangements available in your organisation. If you have a formal policy and/or formal strategy on flexible work arrangements, it asks you to specify what this includes. It also asks whether specific flexible working options are available to managers and non-managers in your workplace, and whether these differ for women and men.

- A flexible work arrangement is an agreement between a workplace and an employee to change the standard working arrangement to better accommodate an employee's commitments out of work.
- Flexible working arrangements usually encompass changes to the hours, pattern and location of work.
- If flexible working arrangements are not available to your employees, you will have the opportunity to indicate why.

Yes

Strategy

*3.1a Do the formal policies and/or formal strategies include any of the following?

Leaders are visible role models of flexible working; Flexible working is promoted throughout the organisation; Manager training on flexible working and remote/hybrid teams is provided throughout the organisation; Employee training on flexible working and remote/hybrid teams is provided throughout the organisation; Flexible work offerings are available to all employees, with a default approval bias (all roles flex approach); Management positions are designed as part-time; All team meetings are offered online; Managers receive support to conduct performance evaluations that are not influenced by the work location of the employee (proximity

Flexible Work - Support for flexible working arrangements

*3.3 Managers receive appropriate support to conduct performance evaluations that are not influenced by the work location of the employee.

Yes

#Employee Support

Employee support - Paid parental leave

Date Created: 27-06-2024

Parental leave policies are designed to support and protect working parents around the time of childbirth or adoption of a child and when children are young. This section focuses on whether employer-funded paid parental leave is available to carers in your organisation (in addition to government-funded parental leave), and if it is, which employees have access to it and how much leave is available.

Some workplaces have developed parental leave policies that no longer use the primary/secondary carer definition and provide equal entitlements to any eligible employee.

Equally shared parental leave policies offer the same type, length and conditions to employees of all genders, who require parental leave, with no distinction between primary and secondary carers.

- If your organisation offers this - you should answer this question with 'yes, we offer employer-funded parental leave to all genders without using the primary/secondary carer definitions.

A primary carer is the person who most meets the child's need, including feeding, dressing bathing and otherwise supervising the child.

A secondary carer is generally the current partner of the primary carer, the other legal parent of the child or the current partner of the other legal parent of the child.

- If your organisation provides parental leave based on this/these definition/s – you should answer this question with 'yes, we offer employer-funded parental leave (using the primary/secondary carer definitions)'. If your organisation specifically provides maternity leave and/or paternity leave, you should also answer 'yes, we offer employer-funded parental leave (using the primary/secondary carer definitions)'.

Through the government's paid parental leave (PPL) scheme, eligible employees receive up to 18 weeks' pay at the national minimum wage. This paid parental leave is not the equivalent to employer-funded paid parental leave.

*4.1 Do you provide employer-funded paid parental leave in addition to any government-funded parental leave scheme?

If you do not offer any employer-funded parental leave (in addition to any government funded parental leave scheme) – you should answer 'no, we do not offer employer-funded parental leave'

Yes, we offer employer funded parental leave using the primary/secondary carer definition

4.1.2 Do you provide employer-funded paid primary carers leave in addition to any government funded parental leave scheme?

Yes

A 'primary carer' is the member of a couple or single carer, regardless of gender, identified as having greater responsibility for the day-to-day care of a child.

*4.1.2.a. Please indicate whether your employer-funded paid primary leave for primary carers is available to:

All, regardless of gender

*4.1.2b Please indicate whether your employer-funded paid

primary carers leave covers:

Birth; Adoption; Surrogacy; Stillbirth

*4.1.2c How do you pay employer-funded paid primary carers leave?

Paying the employee's full salary

*4.1.2d Do you pay superannuation contribution while they are on parental leave?

Yes, on employer funded primary carers leave

*4.1.2e How many weeks (minimum) of employer-funded paid primary carers leave is provided?

- If you offer employer-funded paid parental leave to all carers regardless of the primary/secondary definition, you must report the minimum number of weeks you provide.
- If you offer different packages to certain groups of employees or based on service time, industry or worksite, your minimum would be across all options available to all carers. If you do use the primary/secondary definition, please go back and correct your answer for question 4.1.2 of this section.
- If you enter a high number of weeks (more than 52), you may be required to reconfirm your data to ensure accuracy.

*4.1.2.f Who has access to this type of employer-funded paid primary carers leave?

Permanent employees

*4.1.2.g Do you require primary carers to work for the organisation for a certain amount of time (a qualifying period) before they can access employer-funded primary carers leave?

No

*4.1.2.h Do you require primary carers to take employer-funded paid parental leave within a certain time period after the birth, adoption, surrogacy and/or stillbirth?

Yes

Within 24 months

*4.1.3 Do you provide employer-funded paid secondary carers leave in addition to any government funded parental leave scheme?

Yes

Please indicate how employer-funded paid parental leave is provided to the secondary carers.

*4.1.3a Please indicate whether your employer-funded paid secondary carers leave is available to:

All, regardless of gender

*4.1.3b Please indicate whether your employer-funded paid secondary carers leave covers:

Birth; Adoption; Surrogacy; Stillbirth

*4.1.3c How do you pay employer-funded paid secondary carers leave?

Paying the employee's full salary

*4.1.3d Do you pay superannuation contribution to your secondary carers while they are on secondary carers leave?

Yes, on employer funded parental leave; Yes, on unpaid parental leave

*4.1.3e How many weeks (minimum) of employer-funded secondary carers leave is provided?

- If you offer employer-funded paid parental leave to all carers regardless of the primary/secondary definition, you must report the minimum number of weeks you provide.

Date Created: 27-06-2024

- If you offer different packages to certain groups of employees or based on service time, industry or worksite, your minimum would be across all options available to all carers. If you do use the primary/secondary definition, please go back and correct your answer for question 26 of this section.
- If you enter a high number of weeks (more than 52), you may be required to reconfirm your data to ensure accuracy.

*4.1.3.f Who has access to this type of employer-funded paid secondary-carers leave?

Permanent employees

*4.1.3.g Do you require secondary carers to work for the organisation for a certain amount of time (a qualifying period) before they can access employer-funded secondary carers leave?

No

*4.1.3.h Do you require secondary carers to take employer-funded paid parental leave within a certain time period after the birth, adoption, surrogacy and/or stillbirth?

Yes

Within 24 months

4.2 Does your organisation have an opt out approach to parental leave? (Employees who do not wish to take their full parental leave entitlement must discuss this with their Manager)

No

Employee support - Support for carers

*4.4 Do you have formal policies and/or formal strategies to support employees with family or caring responsibilities?

Date Created: 27-06-2024

This question asks if you have standalone formal policies or strategies on working arrangements to support employees with family or caring responsibilities, or if you include this item in another formal policy or strategy.

- You can answer No and give details on the free-text box if you only provide informal arrangements to support employees with family or caring responsibilities.

A carer refers to an employee's role as the parent (biological, step, adoptive or foster) or guardian of a child, or carer of a child, parent, spouse or domestic partner, close relative, or other dependent. If measures to support carers are not available to your employees, you will have the opportunity to indicate why.

No

Other

Other: We have informal processes in place and encourage discussion between employees and line managers on personal needs and requirements.

*4.5 Do you offer any of the following support mechanisms for employees with family or caring responsibilities?

| Support mechanism  | Yes, at some worksites | Yes, at all worksites | No  |
|--|------------------------|-----------------------|-----|
| Breastfeeding facilities   | No                     | No                    | Yes |
| Information packs for those with family and/or caring responsibilities   | No                     | Yes                   | No  |

Harm Prevention - Sexual harassment, harassment on the grounds of sex or discrimination

Key Definitions

Sexual harassment is when a person makes an unwelcome sexual advance, or an unwelcome request for sexual favours, to the person harassed; or engages in other unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature in relation to the person harassed; in circumstances in which a reasonable person, having regard to all the circumstances, would have anticipated the possibility that the person harassed would be offended, humiliated or intimidated.

Harassment on the ground of sex is when a person engages in unwelcome conduct of a demeaning nature of another person by reason of their sex or a characteristic that generally relates to or is attributed to their sex. This also takes into account circumstances relating to an individual's sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, intersex status, marital or relationship status.

Discrimination happens when a person is treated less favourably, in circumstances that are the same or are not materially different, than a person of a different sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or on the ground of the person's intersex status, marital or relationship status, pregnancy or potential pregnancy, breastfeeding, or family responsibilities.

Legal obligations

The Sex Discrimination Act 1984 makes it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the basis of gender identity, intersex status, sexual orientation, marital or relationship status, family responsibilities, pregnancy or potential pregnancy or breastfeeding. It also prohibits sexual harassment in many areas of public life including all work-related activity. The Anti-Discrimination and Human Rights Legislation Amendment (Respect at Work) Act 2022 created a positive duty requiring employers to implement measures to prevent sexual harassment, hostile work environments and victimisation. This is in addition to the duty of care employers have under WHS legislation to provide a safe workplace and to eliminate and minimise identified risks to health and safety.

Under the Sex Discrimination Act 1984 it is also unlawful for a person to subject another person to a workplace environment that is hostile on the ground of sex.

For more information, refer to Safework Australia or your State or Territory Work Health and Safety regulatory body. More information about harassment on the ground of sex or discrimination can also be found at the Australian Human Rights Commission website.

Disclaimer

This section is not an exhaustive description of, or advice regarding the legal obligations attaching to employers. Employers are responsible for understanding the scope of rights and obligations attaching to employees and the workplace.

*5.1 Do you have formal policies and/or formal strategies on the prevention of and appropriate response to sexual harassment, harassment on the ground of sex or discrimination?

The provisions in a 'policy' and/or 'strategy' for prevention and management of sexual harassment is important for setting workplace culture and achieving a safe, respectful and inclusive workplace. Policies/Strategies alone will not prevent harassment and discrimination; however, they can help to set clear expectations, particularly about behaviours at the workplace and during work-related activities.

Yes

Policy; Strategy

*5.1a Do the formal policies and/or formal strategies include any of the following?

A statement on the positive duty of the employer to provide a safe workplace, free of sexual harassment; Leadership accountabilities and responsibilities for prevention and response to sexual harassment; Expectations of manager and non-manager training on respectful workplace conduct and sexual harassment; Process to disclose, investigate and manage any sexual harassment; Expectations and management of personal/intimate relationships; Processes relating to the use of non-disclosure or confidentiality agreements; The frequency and nature of reporting to the governing body and management on sexual harassment; Guidelines for human resources or other designated responding staff on confidentiality and privacy; How risks will be identified and assessed, and how control measures will be monitored, implemented and reviewed; Process for development and review of the policy, including consultation with employees, unions or industry groups; A system for monitoring outcomes of sexual harassment and discrimination complaints, including employment outcomes for complainants and accused perpetrators

Provide Details:

Head of Business (HOB):

- the CEO or equivalent of a subsidiary organisation within your corporate group
- an employee who has strategic control and direction over a substantial part of the business, but whose responsibilities do not extend across an entire corporate group, such as the head of a brand within a group.

Key Management Personnel (KMP):

- in line with Australian Accounting Standards Board AASB124, KMPs have the authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of an entity, directly or indirectly. This includes any director (executive or otherwise) of that entity.
- a defining feature of KMPs is their influence is at the entity level. KMPs are likely to direct the strategic function of their section and are often functional heads, such as head of operations or head of finance. They represent at least one of the major functions of an organisation and participate in organisation-wide decisions.
- for corporate groups, KMPs will have authority and responsibility across the entire structure.
